The Chapel is the center of Aquinas life since here resides the Source of all Grace and Strength. . . . Here too, stands St. Thomas, the Angelic Doctor, our patron, shielding, guiding, inspiring Aquinas boys who in a most special manner are his peculiar and particular care. . . . Good St. Thomas make us worthy of your all-embracing solicitude and fatherly supervision.

Thou place of rev'rie, praise we and uphold thee,
In retrospection we see thy intention;
To always strive for that which we were made for;
Aquinas evermore.

Dear Alma Mater may you in all hours,
Be the outstanding, be the one commanding;
And of those striving, be the one surviving;
Triumphant over all.

Bathed in Divine light—clothed in clouds of glory—

Be pleased to accept all our thoughts, words, and actions performed at Aquinas.

Be pleased to watch over our every activity, which we dedicate to you.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

St. Grignon de Montfort, over two hundred years ago, spoke of a marvelous forthcoming devotion to Mary; he declared that devotion to Mary would produce the great saints of the future.

Already has this prophecy been fulfilled. The increase of devotion to Mary during the last two hundred and fifty years has been extraordinary and unprecedented.

We are living in the age of Mary.

Where should this marvelous growth of devotion be more naturally and supernaturally developed than on the continent dedicated by Columbus to Mary Immaculate?

The Aquinas man rejoices in a very important fact: Mary the Mother of God is his Mother.

The Aquinas man knows that his belief in the beautiful dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin into heaven—Body and Soul—is a reality for him.

"You too, my son, are loved by God as I am.

You too, my son, must be Christ's companion.

You too, my son, must carry Christ within you.

You too, my son, must bear Christ to the world.

You too, my son, are important to God.

You too, my son, shall rise gloriously.

You too, my son, shall be with me in heaven.

Be not dismayed.

Let the life that is Life be in you.

I shall guard It as I did in Bethlehem.

I shall watch It as I did at Nazareth.

I shall bless the studies and the activities which you have dedicated to me."

Mary, Queen of Aquinas, give us peace.

I N M E M O R I A M

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints"
Psalm CXVI, Verse 15

Just before the year had spent its last breath, and before the bells rang out to usher in the new 1952 year, Sister Helen Concepta peacefully breathed forth her soul into the blessed company of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Again death was swallowed up in victory, and Aquinas gained an added lustre from her complete and total holocaust and absolute self-surrender . . . Christian education was for her "the art of arts and the science of sciences" as she strived each day "to form Christ" in the hearts and minds of her students. We remember her patience, her holy smile, her rigid adherence to duty and detail, her quiet unassuming deportment, her deep humility . . . The tongue of a dying person enforces attention like deep harmony. To charitable bystanders at her death-bed, she whispered, "I'll remember you in Heaven for your kindness to me."

plo, aut de Hadriani auestri statua, quae in ipso sancto Sanctorum laeo usque in praesentem diem stetit. Abominatio quoque secundum veterem Scripturam idolum nuncupatur: et ideo additur desolationis, quod in desolato templo atque destructo idolum positum sit.

¶ Duo Seraphim clamabant alter ad alterum: Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus Dominus, Deus Sabaoth: Plena est omnis terra gloria ejus. ¶ Tres sunt qui testimonium dant in caelo: Pater, Verbum, et Spiritus Sanctus: et hi tres unum sunt. Sanctus, gloria Patri. Amen.

lectio ix

Abominatio desolationis intelligi potest et in dogma peruersum: quod cum videmus stare in loco sancto, hoc est in Ecclesia, et se ostendere Deum, debemus fugere de Iudaea ad montes, hoc est, de Iudaea occidentem littera et Iudaea praeiudicate, appropinquare montibus aeternis, de quibus illuminatur mirabiliter Deus: et esse in lecto et in domo, quo non possunt ignita diaboli iacula perire, nec descendere et tollere aliquid de domo conversationis pristinae, nec quere quae retrorsum sunt, sed magis serere in agro spirituum Scripturarum, ut fructus capiamus ex eo: nec tollere alteram tunicam, quam Apostoli habere prohibentur.

Te Deum laudamus &c.

Ad Laudes

¶ Dominus regnavit, de cetero induit. ¶ Induit Dominus fortitudinem, et praecinxit se virtute.

¶ Dominus ait. Cum videritis abominationem desolationis, quae dicta est a Daniele Propheta, stantem in loco sancto: qui legit, intelligat.

Oratio

¶ Excita, quiescamus, Domine, tuorum fidelium voluntates: ut divini operis fructum propensius exsequentes: pietatis tuae remedia maiora percipiant. Per Dominum nostrum.

Ad Vesperas

¶ Dirigatur, Domine, oratio mea. ¶ Sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.

¶ Amen. Amen. Amen. dico vobis, quia non preteribit generatio haec, donec omnia fiant: caelum et terra transibunt, verba autem mea non transibunt, dicit Dominus.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Our Lady appeared to Saint Simon Stock at Cambridge in England, July 15, 1251.

MESSAGE: "Receive, my dear son, this scapular as the livery of my confraternity. It is the mark of the privileges I have obtained for you and for all the members of the Order of Mount Carmel. Whoever dies clothed in this habit will not descend into hell. It is a sign of salvation, a safeguard in danger, a guarantee of peace and eternal bliss."

The Mother of God, Co-Redemptrix of the human race joins together in the family of Carmel, not only the religious of the Carmelite Order, but also all those who are affiliated to the order, by being members of the Confraternity of the Carmelite Scapular.

Prayer:

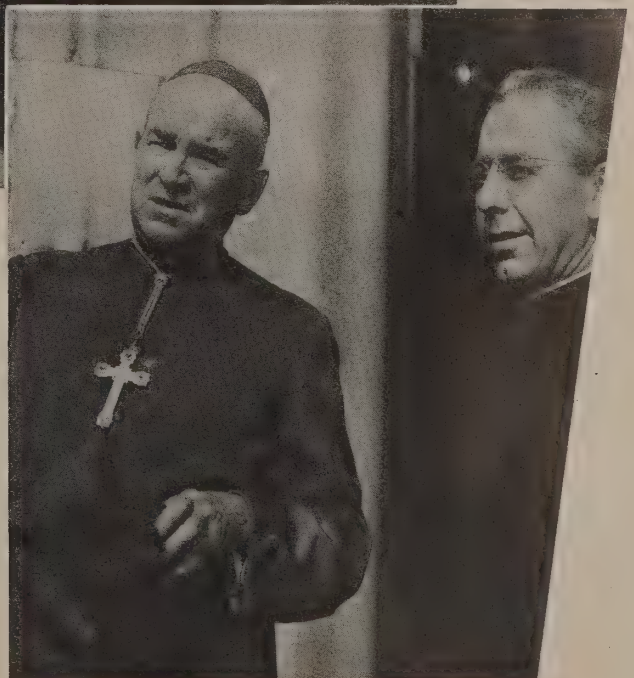

May we always carry on our person, with faith, confidence and devotion, the Scapular of Mount Carmel.

THE MOST REVEREND JAMES E. KEARNEY, D.D.

Our Bishop and our Principal confer after the annual September Mass for the students.

THE VERY REVEREND EUGENE A. CULLINANE, C.S.B. M.A.

Principal's Message:

Any words of farewell that I might speak to you as you graduate from Aquinas would be hollow and empty in comparison with the GREAT APPEAL which our Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, makes to each and every one of you. He speaks the truth. Take his advice. . . .

"The world is unconsciously following a course which is sweeping on to ruin both souls and bodies, the good and the wicked, civilizations and peoples. . . .

"The root of modern evils . . . is lethargy of the spirit, weakness of the will, and coldness of the heart. . . .

"Now is the time, beloved children! Now is the time to take decisive steps and shake off this fatal lethargy! It is the time for all good men, for all who are concerned over the destinies of the world, to recognize one another and tighten their ranks. It is time to repeat with the Apostle: 'It is now the hour for us to rise from sleep, because now our salvation is nearer!'

"It is an entire world which must be rebuilt from its foundations, transformed from savage to human, from human to divine. . . .

We are certain that there will not be lacking amongst you many generous hearts who shall hasten to Our call and put into action Our earnest desire."

Our Lady of Guadeloupe

Our Lady appeared to Juan Diego at Tepayac in Mexico December, 1531

MESSAGE: " - - - your piety is as pleasing to me as the humility of your heart. Know then that I am the Holy Virgin, the Mother of God Who is the author of life and protector of the weak. I desire that a church be built on this spot in order that I may show myself a tender mother both to you and your friends and also to all those who will invoke my name with confidence."

Prayer:

May we triumph always over the forces of evil through the invocation of the Holy Name of Mary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Truly a fine asset to any school is an efficiently-run student council which is ready to tackle any problem. The Council, which is the official voice of the student body, aims to supervise and promote all student activities. This year's student council did a great job, democratically handling all the affairs upon which it touched. Some of the year's bigger projects were the Victory Dance, the Magazine Drive, the Junior Prom, the Senior Ball, the Excursion to Syracuse, and many other smaller tasks.

We hope that these boys will carry with them into later life this democratic way of life which has been instilled in them through the Student Council.

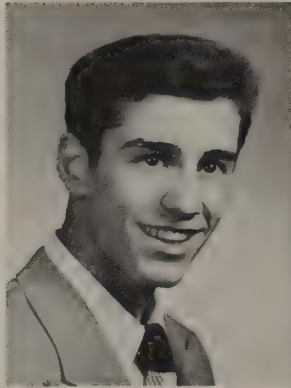

Standing: James Bonanno, Charles Aulbach, Fr. O'Leary (Moderator), William Gamble, John Kinsky. Sitting: Robert Hanss, David MacDonald, Philip Wood.

THE ARETE STAFF AT WORK.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was offered each morning of the three day Retreat.

SENIOR RETREAT

The Rosary was said by each homeroom daily.

Breakfast after Communion in the homerooms.

Rev. Justin McCarthy S.J. mingles humor with solid doctrine.

A very popular spot.

The Stations of the Cross were said by many.

Most of the Seniors received Communion daily during the Retreat.

PRAYERS BEFORE SCHOOL

All Together: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen.
Come, Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful and embolden in them the fire of Thy love.
Teacher: Send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created.
Students: And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.
Teacher: Let us pray.
All Together: O God, Wield by the light of the Holy Spirit, didst protect the hearts of Thy faithful, grant us by the same Holy Spirit to be truly wise and ever to rejoice in His consolation. Through Christ, Our Lord, Amen.

Our Lady of La Salette

Our Lady appeared to Maximim and Melanie at La Salette, France, September 19, 1846.

MESSAGE: "If my people do not listen to me I will be unable to hold back the arm of my Son — As I wish my Son not to abandon mankind, I have to pray without ceasing for you, and you too must do the same — God has given you six days to work, and one day should be reserved for Him — If the harvest is a failure, it is because of your sins — My children, you must pray morning and evening."

Prayer:

O Lady of La Salette, hope of sinners, remember the tears shed for us on Calvary and pray for us who have recourse to thee.

ORGANIZATIONS

Our Lady of Lourdes

Our Lady appeared to Bernadette Soubirous at Lourdes, France, 18 times from February 11, — to July 16, 1858.

MESSAGE: "I do not promise you happiness in this life, but only in the next — Penance! Penance! — I am the Immaculate Conception — I wish a church to be built at Lourdes and that processions come there."

Prayer:

In union with Mary let us honor Jesus in the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and let us increase in our devotion to Our Lady of the Rosary.

ST. THOMAS CLUB

One of the least mentioned but most important clubs in the school is the St. Thomas Club. This club is composed of students of outstanding scholastic ability. The requirement for membership in the St. Thomas Club is an average of ninety or more and no mark under seventy-five for all four quarters. To be eligible for permanent membership one must have made the club all four years.

This club stands for a manifestation of outstanding ability and cooperation on the part of its members. The St. Thomas club is largely responsible for the fine scholastic rating of Aquinas which is one of the highest in New York State.

Two members of the Sodality, Anthony Biondi and Joseph Valenti, sell religious articles before a Mothers' Club meeting.

THE SODALITY

"Ad Jesum per Mariam", the motto of the Sodality summarizes the entire program of this world-wide organization. The three-fold aim of the Sodality, namely personal sanctification, apostolic works to help others, and the defense of the Church, challenges all Sodalists to a rather extensive program.

To live up to the first aim, every Sodalist is asked to perform various daily obligations, which, when diligently adhered to, add greatly to his character. These important obligations include: recitation of the Rosary, mental prayer, visit to the Blessed Sacrament, examination of conscience, spiritual reading, and Daily Mass and Communion, if possible.

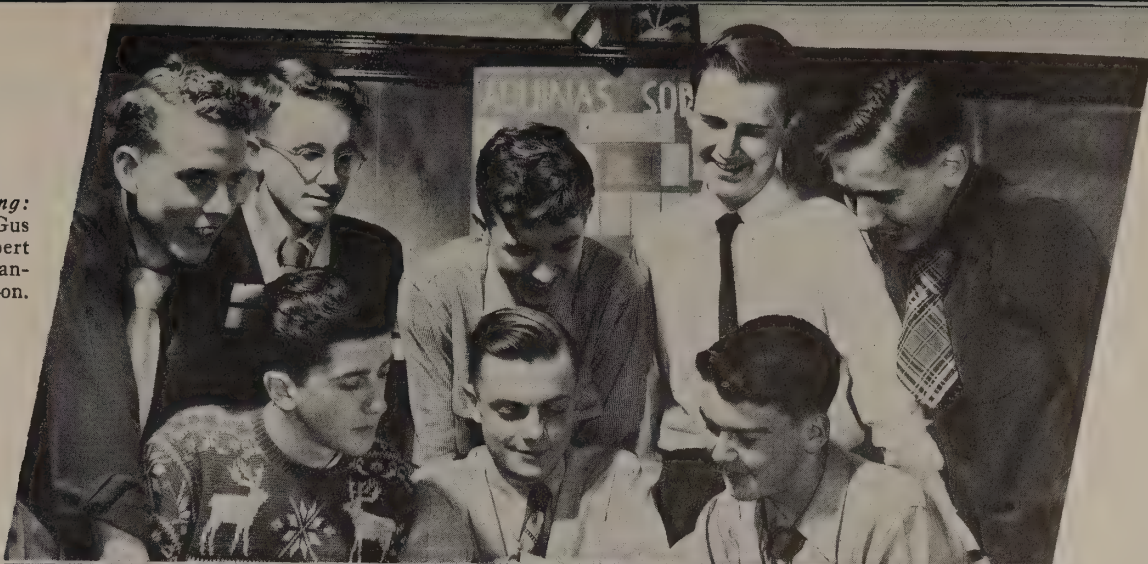

Many organized projects, both in the school and the community, afford the Sodalist an opportunity to exercise his apostolic zeal to bring others closer to Jesus through Mary.

During this one school year, the Aquinas Sodality has organized the Perpetual Rosary in the school, sponsored the Daily Mass, encouraged daily Communion and sold religious articles. This Apostolic work has not been confined only to the school. A youth center in the city was started by the members as a place of instruction for Negro children, and a recreation club for boys and girls of high school age. It is encouraging to note that this center is now prospering and surpassing all expectations. In erecting the very efficient pamphlet racks in the Sodality conference room, they have attempted to give every student the opportunity to increase his knowledge of the Faith, while at the same time help the Sodalists to carry out their third aim, defense of the Church.

MAIN SCHOOL MISSION LEADERS

THE MISSIONS

Although Aquinas is nationally noted for its successful football teams and magazine drives, the most far-reaching and all-inclusive school activity is the Aquinas Mission Crusade. As members of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, Aquinas follows a three point program of mission support: prayer, study, and sacrifice.

The student body is constantly reminded of the great need for spiritual assistance for the men and women who devote themselves to God's people. The intention of the missions is continually remembered in individual prayers and each homeroom follows a program of hearing Mass and saying the rosary for the intention of the Missions.

In each homeroom there is a special place for Mission magazines, and in the library interested students have access to almost every Mission magazine published.

For the third point, Aquinas has a well organized program of sacrifice which is undertaken by the students themselves. The daily homeroom collections and the annual sale of Christmas cards are very well supported. To inspire competitive spirit, Mission assemblies are held and a monthly paper, the "Aquinader", is published to inform the student body of homeroom standings.

Throughout its existence the Aquinas Mission Crusade has grown in size and spirit. It was the subject of an article in the "Oblate World" for its fine work. This year, under the guidance of Fr. Looby and his capable staff, confidence is held that all previous records will be surpassed.

CLUBS

The clubs of Aquinas for the most part, continue the work of the classroom, and are set up to increase an interest in the subjects taught there. The Italian Club sponsors a play, dances, publishes L'Aquilino, and has a banquet at the end of the school year. The Latin Club endeavors to enstill an appreciation of the magnificent works in Ecclesiastical Latin. The Chemistry Club performs laboratory experiments not included in the Chemistry course. The Debating Society has had many contests with schools from Jamestown, Buffalo, and New York. The Spotlight Club has produced several plays during the year. The Safety Patrol directs the traffic of the students before and after school. The members of these clubs should be congratulated for the interest shown in these activities.

DRAMATICS

The Spotlight Club is one of the most successful organizations at Aquinas Institute. This outstanding achievement is due largely to the capable leadership of Fr. Cullen, the director.

Their first presentation was the hilarious "Harvey", starring Walt Herman, Jack O'Brien and Dick Green. Following this the club staged the mystery comedy "The Ghost Train", with Gerry Grassi, Don Bull, Cathy Gilhool, Kay O'Hara and Joan O'Brien. Besides the two plays, the club also sponsored a Talent Show in which any student could participate. The first prize was won by Ralph Irene, who played the accordion.

To the supporting cast, the stage crew, and the business staff also goes much credit for making the two plays dramatic successes.

AQUINAS BAND

Mr. Raymond J. Hasenauer, M.M.

MUSIC

The saying "music belongs to everyone", is displayed in its truest sense here at Aquinas Institute. We are very proud of the fact that year after year we are able to produce one of the finest high school bands and one of the best glee clubs in our state. To maintain a record of this sort is not an easy task. There must be some one individual who is willing to sacrifice a great deal of time to keep our school at the head of the list, and that person to whom we attribute the greater part of our success is Mr. Raymond J. Hasenauer.

Marking the end of the second decade of work as the director of music at Aquinas, Mr. Hasenauer is able to boast the fact that he has produced incredibly outstanding musical organizations, often, with a relatively small amount of talent with which to work. As Mr. Hasenauer has so faithfully labored to highly establish Aquinas Institute in the world of music, so too let us do our utmost to keep this tremendous spirit alive.

'52 ARETE

High School days often constitute the period on which recollection is focused the longest. The Arete strives to make clearer the remembered picture of these days at Aquinas by presenting both a chronicle and a record of individual achievement. Offering capable advice in the production of this year's annual Fr. Lococo, Head of the Latin Department, served as faculty moderator. Others who contributed to the success of this book are John Tschieder, Editor-in-chief, Robert Malley and his able business staff, and Anthony Panzetta not only as literary editor but for his untiring work in the composition of the book. Some of the photography seen on these pages is the work of Peter Turner who supplemented the work of Varden Studio. The task of supervising the photography was under the capable hands of David Davin.

MAROON and WHITE

A school newspaper is two things. It is an instrument to feel the pulse beat of the school; and it is a means of making that pulse beat faster.

The student body, as a whole, profits from the information and persuasive values of a school paper. Through this medium, news events are recounted and student opinion is influenced. Besides this great service to the entire student body the Maroon and White offers its staff additional benefits. The training received in journalism, art, photography, and, above all leadership, will do much to make the staff members better citizens in the years to come.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' Club still continues to be one of great importance to Aquinas Institute, always co-operative and ready to lend a hand whenever any help is needed. This year we were all very proud of the beautiful sweaters our cheerleaders were wearing at the football games. These were a gift from the Mothers' Club. During the Magazine Drive in October many of the mothers were familiar people in the Sodality Room, in the corridors where they gave their time unselfishly to assist Fr. Looby in the tremendous details of this big project. The publisher's offices could not have had more efficient help than the mothers who worked so earnestly during that drive.

Their monthly meetings are always well attended and at this time many things are discussed with the faculty. There is always a social aspect present and each month there is some special speaker, a book review or something to tie in with the aims of Aquinas. The mothers of different parishes take over the role of refreshments in separate months and everything is done to make it pleasant.

They sponsor a large card party and generally have a fashion show in the spring to help swell their treasury.

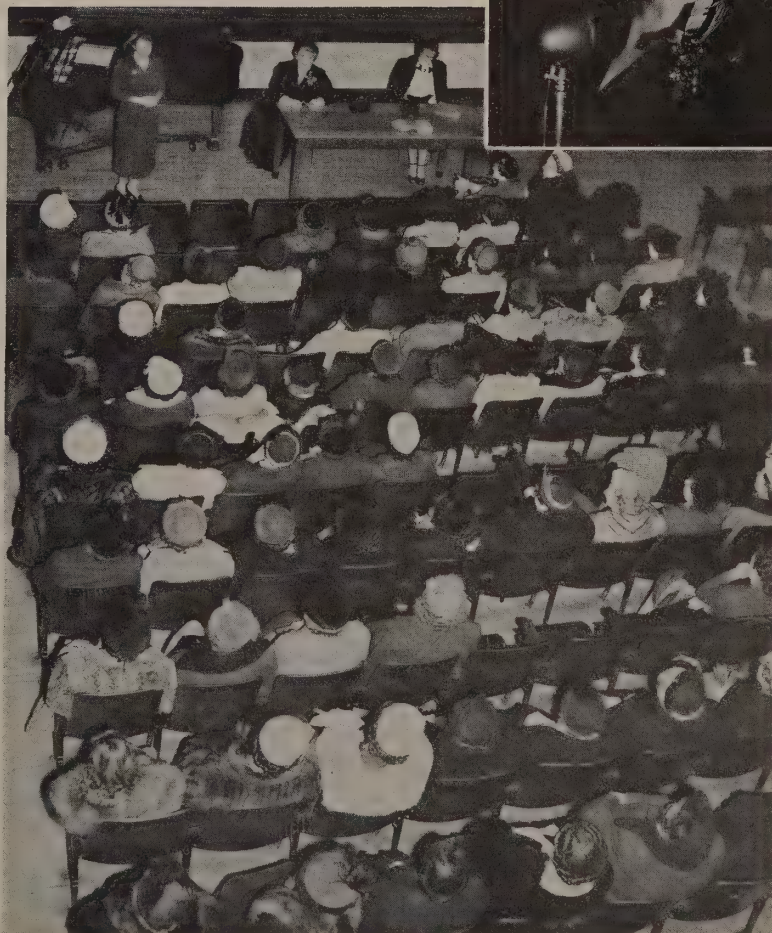

Fr. Fullerton, their moderator, was main speaker for their annual Day of Recollection at the Cenacle in the early fall and the mothers who attended reported it was a day that will long be remembered.

This year the club is under the able direction of Mrs. John Urquhart, President; Mrs. George Kujawa, Vice-President; Mrs. James Malley, Treasurer; Mrs. Paul Rombaut, Secretary; Mrs. Lynn French, Program Chairman; Mrs. Thomas Morris, Hospitality Chairman.

MEN'S CLUB

An organization was founded a few years ago which has done much for the development of Aquinas. This organization is the Aquinas Men's Club. It is composed of approximately 2,000 men. Its members are alumni, fathers of Aquinas students and friends of Aquinas, all of whom have shown great interest in the school.

Activities for the year begin with a meeting in September. There is a well-planned schedule for the year which features several prominent guests at various meetings during the year. After the meetings refreshments are served in the cafeteria where everyone has a chance to renew old acquaintances.

Senator Van Lare addresses the Men's Club.

Don Holleder receives baseball award from Mr. Bamann.

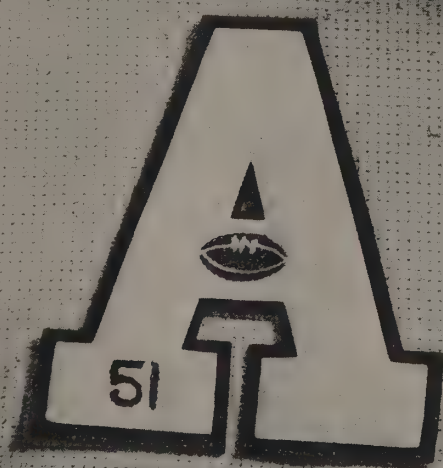

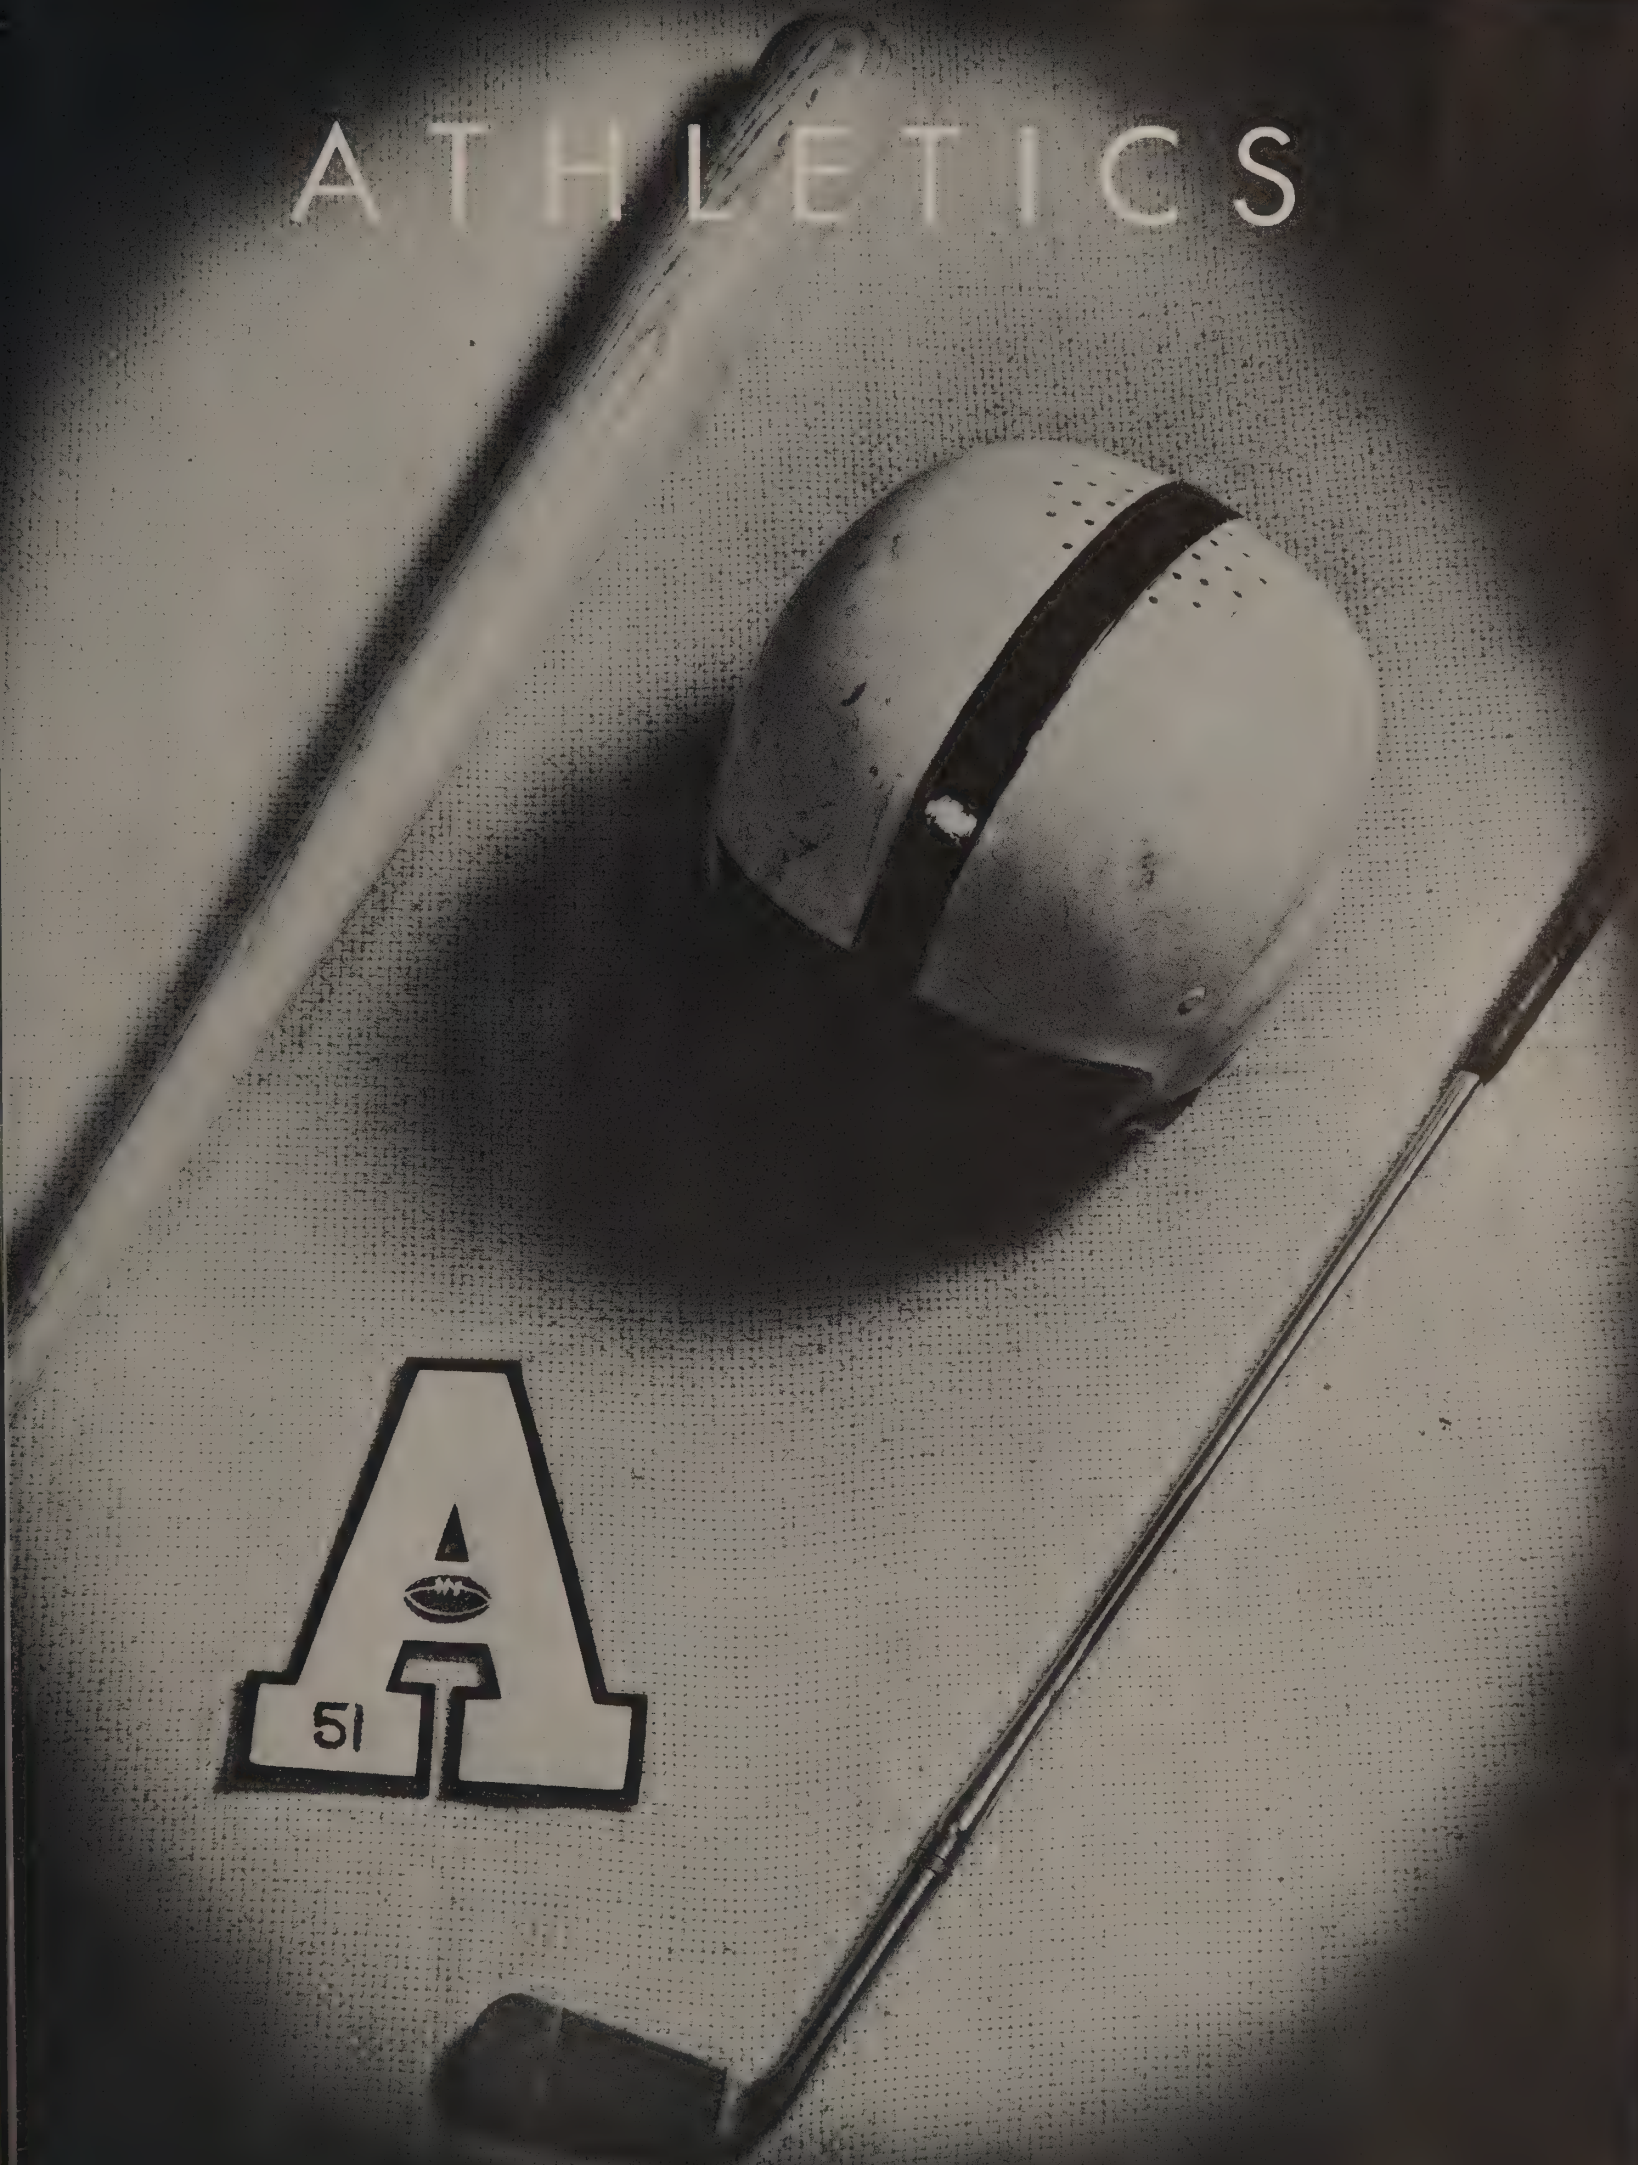

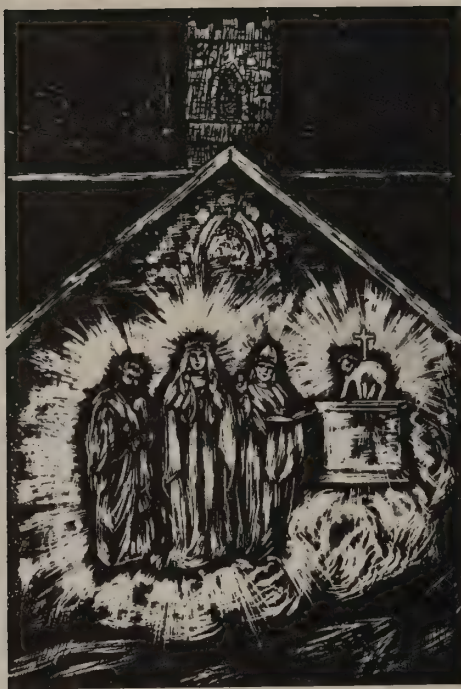

Refreshments after the meeting.

The Men's Club has done much to promote Aquinas football in Rochester. During the football season the Men's Club donates a trophy each week to the outstanding Aquinas football player. This trophy is known as the "Player of the Week" award. Every Monday night during the football season the men meet in the auditorium to see movies of the highlights of the game on the preceding Sunday. The night before the Thanksgiving game there is usually a huge bonfire and the pep rally on the school campus. After this there is a meeting in the auditorium followed by refreshments in the cafeteria.

Much of the success of the club can be credited to the zealous work of its moderator Fr. O'Leary and of its competent officers: Mr. Charles Mirguet, President; Mr. Frank Temmerman, Treasurer; Mr. Joseph Connelly, Secretary.

ATHLETICS

Our Lady of Knock

Our Lady appeared on the gable of the parish church of Knock, County Mayo, August 21, 1879.

Fifteen inhabitants of the village testified, under oath, that they saw Our Blessed Mother, in the company of St. Joseph and St. John the Evangelist, standing at the Gospel side of an altar upon which was the Lamb of God and behind which was a Crucifix. Mary spoke not a word, but the apparition confirmed the Irish in their "way". Mary personified personal holiness; St. Joseph, the defense and spread of the Church; St. John, charity; the Crucifix, sacrifice; and the altar, on which the Lamb of God is slain daily, the source of the strength necessary for a Catholic life.

Prayer:

Let us see in the manifestation of Knock, an invitation to have recourse ever more to the Blessed Virgin, Mediatrix of All Graces and Queen of Heaven and Earth. Let us especially profit by the Mass and Holy Communion, to come nearer to her.

On a bright, sunny afternoon in late September, the 1951 version of the Aquinas "L'il Irish" took the field against the first of an all-prep school schedule, acclaimed as the toughest lineup of opponents ever faced by a high school team. "Mick's men" started the season in fine fashion by drubbing Notre Dame Prep of Chattanooga, Tennessee, 34 to 0. The parade was led by Bob Niermeyer and John McNulty, who was injured for the remainder of the season, and who received the "Player of the Week Award."

On the following Friday, the first night game to be played in Memorial Stadium was held under portable arcs. The second invasion from the South, in the person of Fork Union Military Academy of Virginia, was turned back. Both teams were, at the beginning of the contest, undefeated, but Aquinas turned in its 11'th straight win with a score of 37 to 19, with Bill Fackelman capturing the "Player of the Week Award."

SEASON

On Sunday, October 14'th, Admiral Billard from Connecticut moved in and for the first half, looked like they would snap the Irish win streak at 11 games. However, a fired up Aquinas eleven took the field in the second half and overcame a 12 point deficit and went on to win, 33 to 12. The scoring was led by Don Hollender who was also elected "Player of the Week".

Seeking win number 13, Aquinas finally bowed to the third Southern attack, 26 to 13. A win or die Augusta Military Academy team did the trick over an Aquinas team hampered by injuries. There starters were out, and their absence was felt. Jim Nothnagle was awarded "Player of the Week" because of his superb all-around play.

For the third year in a row, a very large, and very good Bullis Prep team came to Rochester, this time blistering under two previous defeats and now seeking "blood". For a second time, in as many weeks, an injury-riddled Irish team took it on the chin, 35 to 6. The only score came on Ryan's quarterback sneak, and little Jim O'Dell became "Player of the Week".

The next week Aquinas jumped back into the win column by letting the reserves trounce Fairfield Prep in the snow, 46 to 7. The scoring parade continued all afternoon with everyone doing his share and Don Murphy winning "The Player of the Week" award.

On November 11'th nothing short of a miracle was worked in Memorial Stadium when the Little Irish outplayed and outscored the Grey Bees from St. Benedict's, 26 to 19. Aquinas was back at full strength and displayed their early season power. The "old one two" worked twice, with Jim Burns tossing to Don Hollender for two important touchdowns, making Don top scorer and Jim "Player of the Week".

SEASON

On November 22'nd, Thanksgiving Day, unbeaten and untied Manlius sought revenge for their previous year's loss to Aquinas which spoiled their perfect season. Two separate "goal line stands" finally broke the spirit of the Cadets who were defeated for the second straight year, 13 to 0. Bob Niermeyer, turning in his last, and one of his finest games, was named "Player of the Week".

Despite the win-loss record, the season was considered a success on the strength of the victory over St. Benedict's, which was accomplished for the first time. Congratulations should be given to a very fine coaching staff, led by Mr. Connolly and also to a spirited bunch of boys who would never say die.

BASKETBALL

BY THE LITTLE IRISH

'51

Under the superb coaching of Mr. Basil Marella, the 1951-52 edition of the Aquinas basketball team blazed a trail of thirteen victories and two defeats.

Blending a mixture of magnificent team play and great coaching, the Irish rolled over twelve straight opponents before finally being stopped by Manlius in the last ten seconds of play and Admiral Billard. Against prep schools and college frosh quints, Aquinas more than held their own and therefore received a bid from a major basketball tournament.

It is difficult indeed to select individual performers. The L'il Irish were paced by center Don Holleder in the scoring department with Mike Gallo running a very close second; the extraordinary floor games of Gene Sciarratta and Ron Mack; the all-around shooting and rebounding ability of Larry Connorton and the capable relief work of Bill Napier and Greg Britz. The rest of the squad included such creditable players as Chuck Thomas, Tom Morris, Don Bertsch, Dan O'Brien, Jerry McGuire, Jim Spindler and Neil McDevitt.

Regarded as the highest scoring five in Aquinas basketball history, the team provided many a thrill to the spectators who gazed in awe at one of Gallo's fancy jump shots or a sizzling Holleder hook.

The high lights of the season were the excursions to Syracuse, against the LeMoyne freshmen and to Niagara Falls against Bishop Duffy High School.

On each trip went four hundred students to cheer their team to victory. Notable was the game against LeMoyne, which victory was not decided until the final half-minute of play.

Fr. Wilson shows John Coveney how to throw a curve.

Under the watchful guidance of coaches Fr. John Wilson, Mr. Vince Pare', and Mr. Pat Lalonde, the Cooper Marine Post of the American Legion Junior Baseball League turned in its best showing in recent years.

Due largely to the tremendous hitting of Joe Texter and Don Holleder, and the superb pitching of John Cove-ney, the Cooper Marines went undefeated in Rochester and Monroe County. They ended up first in the league standings with a 13-won and 0-loss record.

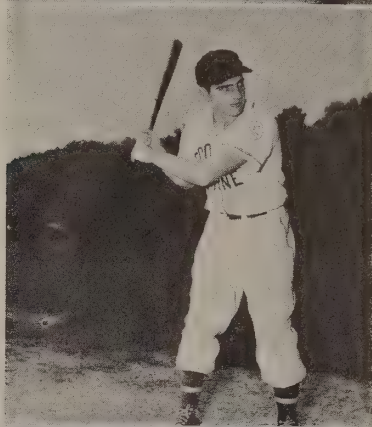

The Coopers won the Monroe County championship in a nerve-racking see-saw battle with Loeser-Shavlan Post. Don Holleder had two of his team's three hits, his second one driving in the winning run in the last inning.

The Coopers then started in the State elimination tournament with a win over the Livingston County representative, Daniel Goho Post. Their next victim was the Turner-Shrader Post from Wayne County, in which they won the 7th District Title.

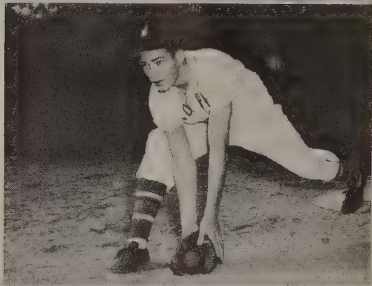

In the State quarter-finals, the Coopers suffered their first and only loss of the season to the South Side Post of Buffalo, the 8th District Champions. They were thus eliminated from further competition.

The Coopers have many regulars from this year's team returning. Among them are Roy Engels, Greg Britz, Bill Doud and Tom Morris. With this nucleus, the Coopers should again be the team to beat next year.

MAGAZINE DRIVE

The 1951 Magazine Drive will long be remembered at Aquinas; not only did the school become the world champions but its remarkable record of 98% student participation in a school of over fifteen hundred students is an example of school spirit, undreamed of by any other school in the nation.

Spurred on by five thousand dollars worth of prizes, including a television set, portable typewriters, a bicycle, Aquinas sweaters, and hundreds of dollars in cash, the Aquinas student body brought in over seventy thousand, five hundred dollars worth of magazine subscriptions in only nine days, beating the once proud Evanston High of Illinois, their nearest competitor in the race for world championship.

MAGAZINE DRIVE

Besides the prizes, Fr. Looby and his "Keep the ball rolling" crews were a great incentive to the student body. All through the drive they could be seen putting up posters, writing songs, slogans, and preparing student assemblies—highlight of which was the lowering of an ingeniously designed "Magnometer" for the high salesman of the day to record the day's total sales. Another great group of drive boosters in fact a group without whom there could not have been a magazine drive, were the ladies from the Aquinas Mothers' Club who donated their time to the tabulation of subscriptions. We are sure they realize how much the school and the student body appreciate their service.

A major part of the color was derived from the competition between homerooms, especially the tremendous struggle for first place waged by Fr. Looby's senior homeroom 314 and Fr. O'Reilly's junior Irishmen from 320. The lead bounced back and forth between the two all during the drive with 320 finally edging into first place.

The school wishes to thank the Curtis Circulation Co. for making the drive possible and expresses its gratitude to all those who contributed to the success of the drive and assures them that Aquinas students in years to come will enjoy the fruits of their labors.
